Call 911 if you are experiencing life-threatening medical emergencies.

UNC students who are sick or injured:

- Call 919-966-2281. During regular hours [1] of operation, schedule an appointment or connect with a registered nurse to ask questions. After hours, the line connects with Health Link, a nurse advice system associated with UNC Health Care.
- Same Day Care [2] is available for urgent needs. Wait times for those without an appointment will vary. Appointments are encouraged to help limit wait times and to provide safe, efficient care.

To talk with someone now about an emotional or mental health concern:

- Walk into Counseling and Psychological Services [3] during regular business hours 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday
- After hours, call 919-966-3658 to access a support line staffed by mental health professionals.
- Other resources include:
  - Text Support Line - text STEVE to 741741 to connect with a trained crisis counselor

If you or someone you know has survived an incident of sexual assault [6]:

Call 911 if you are in immediate danger. Find an environment where you feel safe. Get medical attention through Campus Health [7] or the UNC Emergency Department. Report the assault and get the support you need. For more information, go to http://safe.unc.edu [8]
